Woodland Cultural Centre welcomes new Executive Director

Paula Whitlow has assumed duties as new Executive Director of WCC.

BRANTFORD, ON (May 9, 2017) - After six years as the Museum Director at Woodland Cultural Centre, the Board of Directors is happy to announce Paula Whitlow as the new Executive Director of the Woodland Cultural Centre effective May 1, 2017.

Whitlow, who has led the museum at Woodland Cultural Centre through renovations, events, and countless historical exhibitions for many years, will lead Woodland into a new and exciting chapter as the Centre continues to offer innovative and culturally rich programming.

The Board of Directors are excited that Paula has accepted the position of Executive Director and look forward to working with her as we continue to strive for excellence in education and programming.

The Woodland Cultural Centre Board of Directors and staff wish Paula all the best in her new role.
