

WOODLAND
CULTURAL CENTRE

This project is to update existing drawings from a previous edition of a language book series. A sample picture from one of the previous books with accompanying text has been included in this package.

Redraw the picture using the text as reference. This illustration can be your own representation of the sample picture and text.

Text with the picture sample:

The ginger bread man in the picture is saying:

“I got away from the old woman, I got away from the old man too.”

“I’ll be able to escape from you too!” (speaking to the cow)

They then all chased the ginger bread man.
